MR. ELTING INTERRUPTS RED CROSS MEETING

More Interruptions of the Same Kind Will be as Joyously Received—County Only $8,000 Short of Allotment and City $5,882.90 Over.

The feature of the meeting of Red Cross workers at the Y. M. C. A. Thursday evening was the way Philip Elting, in his most subdued, apologetic and matter-of-fact manner, interrupted the festivities by reading a telegram that nearly caused a riot between the workers of the First and Second wards.

The returns were all in, the totals had been announced and the flags for both the largest number and the largest amount of subscriptions had been delivered to the Second ward workers, C. V. A. Decker, leader pro tem., the First ward, being a close second, when Mr. Elting, who had arrived a few minutes before, arose and said he wanted to interrupt the proceedings for a minute. "Kingston is the largest city in the 27th Congressional District," he said, "and I have just received this telegram from the representative in congress of our district."

Then he read a telegram from Congressman Ward stating that a check for $1,000 was on the way and that he, Congressman Ward, desired to donate this to the Ulster County Red Cross through Mrs. Elting.

The cheers with which this announcement was greeted couldn't quite be heard in France, but they surely must have been heard in Poughkeepsie and Hightstown.

Of course Mayor Canfield immediately claimed the $1,000 for the First ward, as Mrs. Elting resides in that ward. Of course Mr. Decker didn't want to give up even one of his flags. Of course everybody bowed, but being more interested in the Red Cross receiving $1,000 than in which ward got the credit for it, he just joined in the singing of the Y. M. C. A. version of "Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here," as joyously as anyone. The lines of the song run:

Hail, hail the gang's all here—
We mustn't say the naughty word! We mustn't say the naughty word—
Hail, hail the gang's all here—
We mustn't say the naughty word now.

But as everybody knows just what the naughty word is, "What the hell did they care?" (The Freeman reporter does not belong to the Y. M. C. A.)

Anyway, they sang the song much better than they sang "Dixie" the first time Mr. Dodge asked for it. It is beginning to look as though there are some practical jokers and conspirators among the Rotarians, who are the backbone of Mr. Dodge's chorus, for by some strange combination of events that could not have been without a cause, when Mr. Dodge called for "Dixie" he found himself singing it as a solo, which was rather embarrassing to the chorister but afforded a lot of fun to everyone else. Anyway, they had a right to have some fun with Mr. Dodge or anyone else, for wasn't Kingston over the top by $5,882.90 and the whole county within $8,000 of going over the top, with the back district to hear from and two days more to go? And maybe there will be more telegrams.

No Luncheon Tonight.

There will be no get together luncheon tonight, but there will be one tomorrow, Saturday night, at the usual hour, 9 o'clock sharp, at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium.

Final Supper Monday Evening.

Every single worker, team captain and chief in city and county is asked to make plans to be at the final supper to be held at the Y. M. C. A. on Monday evening, next at 6:45 o'clock, promptly, when it is expected that county and city representatives will turn in final reports, get acquainted and confer on the successes and errors of this campaign for the better prosecution of the next one. It will be a meeting that no one should miss. Remember, Monday evening at 6:45 o'clock.

Grace was said by Rabbi Rosenberg of Temple Emanuel and the speakers for the evening were the Rev. Walter S. Maines of Ellenville and Attorney John W. Eckert of this city. Both spoke enthusiastically of the work the Red Cross is doing, in fact it would seem that not a single thought relative to Red Cross work could have been missed by the speakers during this campaign, and also urged a serious appreciation of the gravity of the present war situation, for our own country, and the need of putting forth every possible human effort to help our fighting men and our Allies to win this war.

The following city industries are now one hundred per cent Red Cross:

Mellen, Aikenhead Co.
Columbia Shirt
Manhattan Shirt
Charlton Co.
Koffler Clothing Co.
A. R. King Co.
Fessenden-Shirt
Penssdratt & Case
Powell Box Co.
W. Reedell Foundry
Cambell Motor Car Co.
C. & D. Shops

When Mr. Schoonmaker called on Mr. Dodge to start the evening's singing he paid Mr. Dodge a true tribute for the pep he was putting into the meetings through the spirited singing and the inspired and the remarks were cordially applauded.

It should be stated right here, that Mr. Watts, chief of Ward 4, announced that that ward had been combed clean, and his workers were ready to assist any other ward in need of workers, which was heartily applauded, and Chairman Schoonmaker, informed Mr. Watts that the offer should be gladly accepted.

IN THE SERVICE OF OUR COUNTRY

FIRST CLASS PRIVATE JUSTIN BELL.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Bell of West Shokan, who has been stationed at Camp Dix, N. J., since September 29, 1917. He was transferred from Co. L, 310th Infantry, to Co. A, 308th Machine Gun Batt. This company expects to be in France very soon, probably on the way "over there" at the present time. Private Bell is called the Home Town Boy by the fellows in camp, he being the only one there to represent West Shokan. Private Bell is a graduate of Spencer's Business College and has been connected with the Mohawk House as assistant clerk for the past two seasons. The best wishes of all his friends go with him as he is true soldier of our U. S. A. and will do his duty wherever placed. We all hope for his safe return. He is a good Christian boy, member of the Baptist Church.

Francis J. Carey, son of P. R. Carey of this city, and auditor with Morris & Co., at Syracuse, has entered the U. S. Naval Reserve and will leave shortly for the Pelham Park Training School for three months.

Ralph A. Watson of this city is now in Camp McClellan at Aniston, Alabama. He has written his friend, John Donaldson, West, Pleasant street, that the army life is the most interesting you get used to it. It is extremely hot in that section.

P. J. Belcher, a son of J. Philip Belcher, of 224 Foxhall avenue, has enlisted in the Engineering Railway Department, and will leave Monday morning on the 9:05 train for Laurel, Maryland. Mr. Belcher was with the Consolidated Cement Company and lately has been in the employ of the New York Central as yard clerk, at Kingston. His many friends wish him success in the army.

EDINGERS AGREE ON SEPARATION

Three Children Voluntarily Surrendered by the Mother Who, it is Said, Has Gone Back to Her Parents.

Mr. and Mrs. John Edinger of 146 Elmendorf street were in the private office of Judge Schrick at the city hall Thursday for some time talking matters over.

Mr. Edinger was threatening to bring an action against his wife on the grounds of improper guardianship to secure his three children, when the wife agreed to give them up voluntarily. She did so and it is understood she has gone back to her own folks in Ellenville, while Mr. Edinger remains in possession of his three children.

This was the aftermath of the trial in police court Tuesday of Clement Lord, a discharged soldier, who was arrested on a warrant sworn out by Mr. Edinger, charging Lord with assault in the third degree. At that time Lord pleaded guilty and was jailed for six months.

WAR AT A GLANCE

The Germans have extended their gas "shell bombardment" north of Bethune until it now reaches as far as the Nieppe Forest. The British hold strong positions in and about this wood and they proved impregnable when the Germans were trying to extend their Raillieu success by pushing along the railway line that passes through Merris and Hazebrouck.

(Nieppe Forest, which lies on the southern end of the great Flanders battle front, borders the Lys River and is between seven and eight miles northwest of the important British railroad position at Bethune. Between Bethune and the forest are the battle scarred villages of Hinnest, Robecq and St. Venant.)

While the German infantry remains inactive in both the Picardy and Flanders battle zones the steadily growing intensity of the German artillery firing in the district north of Bethune and Lille indicates that a new blow is impending against the British positions in that hilly stretch of country.

There are two areas on high ground on the Flanders front that proved severe obstacles to the Germans in the first phase of their dash towards the channel ports. One lies on the Franco-Belgian frontier, southwest of Ypres; the other is in the Bethune sector, flanking the d'Aire Canal and the Lys river.

To achieve a success the Germans will have to overcome Anglo-French defenses in both zones and now that there are Americans on the northern battlefield the German chances of breaking through have become more remote than ever before.

In addition to the heavy cannonading north of Bethune the big guns are roaring along most of the other sectors of the two battle fields.

It has been nearly a month now since the big scale operations died down and excellent fighting weather has developed in the meanwhile but still Von Hindenburg is holding off his field gray hordes.

While the Germans continue their methodical preparations the British and French forces thrust against various parts of the German lines, with raiding groups of storming troops, constantly improving their positions.

This was the sixty-fifth day of the German drive.

CORP. SULLIVAN WOUNDED IN ACTION

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Sullivan, His Parents, Received Word From War Department—A Member of First Engineers.

Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Sullivan of No. 45 Walnut street, received a telegram from the war department at Washington reading: "Deeply regret to inform you that Corporal John Kenneth Sullivan was seriously wounded in action on May 18."

Corporal Sullivan, who enlisted last May when the call went out for volunteers, is a member of Company D, First Engineers, and has been "Somebody in France" since August 7, 1917. He is a graduate of the high school in the class of '17 and is one of the most popular young fellows residing in the Poughkeepsie section of the city and his host of friends hope that he will soon recover from his wound.

COMFORT KITS AT ARMORY SUNDAY

The boys of Division No. 1 and 2, who entrain Monday morning for Camp Wadsworth, will be presented with their comfort kits Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the armory. The presentation speech will be made by the Very Rev. John J. Hickey.

CHANGE OF TIME.

Red Cross Women Called for 6:45 O'clock Tonight.

Through a most unfortunate error it was stated in last evening's Freeman that the Italy Day parade tonight would be at eight o'clock and the women of the Red Cross were asked to assemble at the court house at that hour. The parade tonight will gather at the court house at exactly 6:45 o'clock, and every Red Cross worker, wearing a white gown of some sort, her white veil and insignia, is asked to be on hand at that hour. Each worker is requested to wear the Italian colors.

Knights of Columbus Meet at 7 p. m.

The members of Kingston Council, No. 275, will meet at the corner of Main and Wall streets, in front of St. Joseph's Church, to take part in the parade in honor of Italy Day, 7 o'clock tonight. All members should be present.

"ITALY DAY" IS CELEBRATED HERE

Stars and Stripes and Italian Flag Fly Side by Side—Big Parade This Evening Followed by Patriotic Exercises.

Today is "Italy Day." In commemoration of the third anniversary of Italy's entrance into the war, floating proudly to the breeze, with Stars and Stripes, the Italian flag today flies from the following Kingston buildings: City hall, post office, Knights of Columbus Hall, armory, and county clerk's office.

This evening is the big parade. Company M, city officials, Knights of Columbus, patriotic organizations, the Red Cross, Italian-American citizens and others will march. The parade will form at Main and Fair streets at 6:45 o'clock and will start at 7:15 o'clock. The line of march will be from the Burgevin building on Main street to Clinton avenue, to Albany avenue, to Broadway, on Broadway to Knights of Columbus Hall.

All citizens are requested to wear the Italian colors of green, white and red, either in decoration or flowers. It is hoped that as far as possible the residences and business houses will be decorated with American and Italian flags.

The members of the Red Cross who are to parade are requested to meet at the court house at 6:45 o'clock.

ADMIRAL SIMS SAYS SUBS BEATEN

The Boche Submarine Operations Do Not Stop American Troops Crossing the Seas—Germans Not to Be Led Much Longer by Bloody Junkers.

By Telegram to The Freeman. London, May 24.—"We have the submarine virtually beaten. Coordination between the fleets of the Allies is a done job. German divers crews are pretty sick and are getting sicker every day," said Admiral Sims, commander-in-chief of the American naval forces in European waters.

"The navies of the Allies are working together as comrades in practice so it is 'Sunny France,'" were razor blades came today and they were victory of a senior Allied commander, and money is not plentiful, but at one has its paval Poch and the work of all is co-ordinated by the Allied naval council.

We have mastered the submarine; it would starve England, and proven it false. The boast that it would stop American forces from reaching the battlefields in France has been proven foolish. With the British navy, the French navy and the Italian navy the American navy has cooperated and I can safely say we are well on the road to winning. We shall do the job completely. Germany's hope of crippling the Allies at sea is rapidly fading. When the German people know it has failed they will not be an easy job for the Kaiser and his junkers to lead them forward into a successive and hopeless shambles of blood and misery."

ENGLISH PRINCE WELCOMED HERE

By Telegram to The Freeman. An Atlantic Port, May 24.—His Royal Highness Prince Arthur of Connaught, cousin of King George of England, arrived at this port today on an English warship. The British vessel was met by an American destroyer and Prince Arthur was transferred to the American vessel and brought to this city. The Prince is on his way to Japan.

In addition to the prince the party consists of Captain the Hon. Joseph St. Clair, Master of Sinclair, Esquerry to His Royal Highness; Lieut. General Sir William Pulteney, K. C. B., K. C. M. G., D. The party was met aboard ship by Breckenridge Long, third assistant secretary of state; Leland Harrison; Major General Joseph E. Klyn, N. A.; Captain Harry E. Ranelly, N. A.; Lieut. Comdr. U. S. N. and Lieut. H. McLeod, U. S. N., aide to Admiral Huse.

"TURN MY CHECK OVER TO THE RED CROSS FUND"

Ulster Co. Boy in France Wants to Help Ulster County to Double its Red Cross Allotment After Seeing Some Of the Red Cross Work Over There.

Q. M. C. A. P. O. 705, A. E. F. folks up and make a better record for Ulster county than ever before.

Watching For News.

Is John D. Schoonmaker running the campaign this time? If he is I know will be a winner anyway for he just goes out and does things without any brass band or burrah. But I wish you folks could know how we are all watching out for the news from home, to see whether the interest keeps up or you are getting tired.

Don't Let the Folks Forget.

Don't let the folks forget that the more men we have over here and the more men we have at the front the bigger the casualty lists will get and the more need there will be for the Red Cross.

Glad to hear everybody at home, including Buster, is well.

FRED.

SOLDIER'S PAY GOES TO RED CROSS

From War Department Check Poughkeepsie Family Returns to Uncle Sam in Contributions for its Members.

The Ninth ward, of which N. D. J. Murphy is chairman, was awarded one of the honor banners Wednesday evening at the meeting of the Red Cross workers at the Y. M. C. A.

Among the noteworthy contributions to the Second war fund drive was that of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred T. Ashby, of 18 Poughkeepsie street. They have a two-star service flag flying at their house, one star for a boy now serving the colors and the other star in memory of their other son who died in the service. When the solicitors called at the house Mrs. Ashby contributed the sum of $15, of which amount $10 was from her husband and herself, and the remainder for her son, Private Edwin Ashby. The contribution was paid with a check from the war department. The Ashbys have not only given their only sons to Uncle Sam but they are helping in every way to win the war by doing what they can at home. If every family in Kingston followed their patriotic example this second Red Cross drive would close with Ulster county's quota of $75,000 tripled.

Among other contributions from the Fifth ward was one for $20 from the Ladies' Aid Society of Temple Emanuel.

Van Wageningen Store Attractive.

Red Cross uniforms were in evidence on every hand at Van Wageningen's and in every department. Thursday, and aided greatly in increasing the sales. Red Cross markers, American and Red Cross flags adorned the store, and in the very front, was displayed an exceptionally handsome Italian flag, made by Mr. Richards, in charge of the draperies and art fabrics department.

Attractive Window Display.

Charles A. Warren, the Fair street sporting goods dealer, had a fine window display Friday, showing a circus tent, animals and an airplane flying over the grounds. It attracted much attention.

Mr. Messenger, who according to Chairman Schoonmaker's statement has been the man who has done so very much to make the working out of this campaign the success it is, then addressed the workers, complimenting them on what had already been done, but seriously warning them that there was real need of renewed efforts for the last three days, lest, having done so well we rely upon that and fail finally at the end, which would be a calamity indeed. Then the following announcements were made by Mr. Messenger:

Free For All.
Beginning this morning, the city will be thrown open, free to every worker to go wherever they wish, to be or to think that they can secure a contribution, and Mr. Messenger suggested that several more persons might today be found in rooming and boarding houses and hotels in the city.

Return Every Card Issued.
The workers were specifically instructed to return every card given them, no matter whether the person subscribed or not, no matter if an error had been made in making out the card, and if the card happened to be a duplicate, it should be marked, but just the same returned. This is

Francis J. Carey, son of P. R. Carey of this city, and auditor with Morris & Co., at Syracuse, has entered the U. S. Naval Reserve and will leave shortly for the Pelham Park Training School for three months.

Ralph A. Watson of this city is now in Camp McClellan at Annapolis, Alabama. He has written his friend, John Donaldson, West Pierpont street, that the army life is the life after you get used to it. It is extremely hot in that section.

P. J. Beichert, a son of J. Philip Beichert, of 234 Foxhall avenue, has enlisted in the Engineering Railway Department, and will leave Monday morning on the 3:05 train for Laurel, Maryland. Mr. Beichert was with the Consolidated Cement Company and lately has been in the employ of the New York Central as yard clerk at Kingston. His many friends wish him success in the army.

EDINGERS AGREE ON SEPARATION

Three Children Voluntarily Surrendered by the Mother Who, it is Said, Has Gone Back to Her Parents.

Mr. and Mrs. John Edinger of 146 Elmendorf street were in the private office of Judge Schirrick at the city hall Thursday for some time talking matters over.

Mr. Edinger was threatening to bring an action against his wife on the grounds of improper guardianship to secure his three children, when the wife agreed to give them up voluntarily. She did so and it is understood she has gone back to her own folks in Ellenville, while Mr. Edinger remains in possession of his three children.

This was the aftermath of the trial in police court Tuesday of Clement Lord, a discharged soldier, who was arrested on a warrant sworn out by Mr. Edinger, charging Lord with assault in the third degree. At that time Lord pleaded guilty and was jailed for six months.

It should be stated right here, that Mr. Watts, chief of Ward 4, announced that that ward had been combed clean, and his workers were ready to assist any other ward in need of workers, which was heartily applauded, and Chairman Schoonmaker, in forming Mr. Watts, the offer would be gladly accepted.

WAR AT A GLANCE

The Germans have extended their gas shell bombardment north of Bethune until it now reaches as far as the Nieppe Forest. The British hold strong positions in and about this wood and they proved impregnable when the Germans were trying to extend their Bailluit success by pushing along the railway line that passes through Meris and Hazebrouck.

(Nieppe Forest, which lies on the southern end of the great Flanders battle front, borders the Lys River and is between seven and eight miles northwest of the important British railroad position at Bethune. Between Bethune and the forest are the battle scarred villages of Hinges, Robecq and St. Venant.)

While the German infantry remains inactive in both the Picardy and Flanders battle zones the steadily growing intensity of the German artillery firing in the district north of Bethune and Lille indicates that a new blow is impending against the British positions in that hilly stretch of country.

There are two areas on high ground on the Flanders front that proved severe obstacles to the Germans in the first phase of their dash towards the channel ports. One lies on the Franco-Belgian frontier, southwest of Ypres; the other is in the Bethune sector, flanking the d'Aire Canal and to Loisine river.

To achieve a success the Germans will have to overcome Anglo-French defenses in both zones, and now that there are Americans on the northern battlefield the German chances of breaking through have become more remote than ever before.

In addition to the heavy cannonading north of Bethune the big guns are roaring along most of the other sectors of the two battle fields.

It has been nearly a month now since the big scale operations died down and excellent fighting weather has developed in the meanwhile but still Von Hindenburg is holding off his field gray hordes.

While the Germans continue their methodical preparations the British and French forces thrust against various parts of the German lines, with raiding parties of storming troops, constantly improving their positions.

This was the sixty-fifth day of the German drive.

CORP. SULLIVAN WOUNDED IN ACTION

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Sullivan, His Parents, Received Word From War Department—A Member of First Engineers.

Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Sullivan of No. 45 Walnut street received a telegram from the war department at Washington reading: "Deeply regret to inform you that Corporal John Kenneth Sullivan was seriously wounded in action on May 18."

Corporal Sullivan, who enlisted last May when the call went out for volunteers, is a member of Company D, First Engineers, and has been "Somewhere France" since August 7, 1917. He is a graduate of the high school in the class of '17 and is one of the most popular young fellows residing in the Poncehockie section of the city and his host of friends hope that he will soon recover from his wound.

Mr. Edinger was threatening to bring an action against his wife on the grounds of improper guardianship to secure his three children, when the wife agreed to give them up voluntarily. She did so and it is understood she has gone back to her own folks in Ellenville, while Mr. Edinger remains in possession of his three children.

"ITALY DAY" IS CELEBRATED HERE

Stars and Stripes and Italian Flag Fly Side by Side—Big Parade This Evening Followed by Patriotic Exercises.

Today is "Italy Day." In commemoration of the third anniversary of Italy's entrance into the war, floating proudly to the breeze, with Stars and Stripes, the Italian flag today flies from the following Kingston buildings: City hall, post office, Knights of Columbus, Hall, armory, and county clerk's office.

This evening is the big parade, Company M, city officials, Knights of Columbus, patriotic organizations, the Red Cross, Italian-American citizens and others will march. The parade will form at Main and Fair streets at 6:45 o'clock and will start at 7:15 o'clock. The line of march will be from the Burgevin building on Main street to Clinton avenue, to Albany avenue, to Broadway, on Broadway to Knights of Columbus Hall.

All citizens are requested to wear the Italian colors of green, white and red, either in decoration or flowers. It is hoped that as far as possible the residences and business houses will be decorated with American and Italian flags.

The members of the Red Cross who are to parade are requested to meet at the court house at 6:45 o'clock.

ADMIRAL SIMS SAYS SUBS BEATEN

The Boche Submarine Operations Do Not Stop American Troops Crossing the Seas—Germans Not to Be Led Much Longer by Bloody Junkers.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

London, May 24.—"We have the submarine virtually beaten. Coordination between the fleets of the Allies is a done job. German diver crews are pretty sick and are getting sicker every day," said Admiral Sims commander-in-chief of the American naval forces in European waters.

"The navies of the Allies are working together as comrades in practically all areas of naval operations. Their mixed forces are under the direction of a senior Allied commander. There is no continuous naval front, but there are several fronts. Each one has its naval force and the work of all is co-ordinated by the Allied naval council."

We have mastered the submarine, said that it was the German navy, and proven it false. The boast that it would stop American forces from reaching the battlefields in France has been proven foolish. With the British navy, the French navy and the Italian navy the American navy has cooperated and I can safely say we are well on the road to winning.

We shall do the job completely. Germany's hope of crippling the Allies at sea is rapidly fading. When the German people know it has faded it will not be an easy job for the Kaiser and his Junkers to lead them forward into a successive and hopeless shambles of blood and misery."

ENGLISH PRINCE WELCOMED HERE

"TURN MY CHECK OVER TO THE RED CROSS FUND"

Ulster Co. Boy in France Wants to Help Ulster County to Double its Red Cross Allotment After Seeing Some Of the Red Cross Work Over There.

Q. M. C. A. P. O. 705, A. E. F., France, April 30.—Half a dozen letters arrived today, including one from Mrs. Streeter, who was my Sunday school teacher at Ulster Park, and a letter from a Camp Fire Girl who writes that she wants to receive a letter "from a real soldier."

Why write to me, then, for expecting that I wear a uniform, eat rations and take orders, I am a combination stock clerk and fourth assistant bookkeeper and for all the danger I encounter might as well be working for Everett & Treadwell back home. But our work has to be done, although it is not spectacular or heroic and the men higher up placed us here. The men who have been up front in the middle of things seem to think the same way as we don't get any news from them. There is little change here except that after May 1 there will be more "less" days. I am no longer the Gasoline Gus for the cans, but have a real job and they have another Gus. I do the same old office work as before, some typewriting, fix up requisitions and fill in with work in the warehouse.

Sunday was a dull day. Finished my week's wash at 11 and it was dry by noon. I have got to be a regular washing machine since I got in the army. In the afternoon Jake and I went to town, skated, dined with our friends at their home and swapped English lessons for French. The French people seem delighted when they find an American trying seriously to learn their language. I am getting so I can read the war news in the French papers. We find it pays to keep decent company and avoid the trash. You can pick them out by their appearance, just as at home.

Sunshine and Showers.
The weather is very nice. Of course it rains every day, but the sun shines even while the rain is falling, so it is "Sunny France." More razor blades came today and they were welcome, as they are hard to get here and money is not plentiful, but if my Liberty Bonds are paid I will be on easy street again.

Red Cross Package Received.
The package from the Ulster County Red Cross came yesterday. A sweater, two pairs of socks, muffler, wristlets, etc. They came in fine shape and will come in handy next winter. The sweater is useful now as the nights are very cool and damp. I have been using my raincoat, as the old sweater I took from home is worn out.

Red Cross Has The Goods.
Over here we are all wondering now what the folks back home have done for the Liberty Loan and what they are going to do for the Red Cross. So far I have been proud of the "Ulster county" on my Comfort Kit bag, but I wonder if old Ulster is going to hold out and keep up the pace. I don't want to have to paint that "Ulster county" out. Of course with us who have never smelled powder except when there is target practice and have never been sick, the Y. M. C. A. and K. of C. are the big things so far as our personal comfort goes. And these follow the boys into the trenches and hospitals, too. But after all, it is the Red Cross that delivers the goods to the fellows who need help the most. I have seen a great many men from the front, and some of them did not come away unharmed, either, and they all tell me that the Red Cross has the goods. I have seen the Red Cross hospitals here at this base, and how they are equipped and ready for the worst and I have seen some of the work they are doing for the T. B. patients, for the French civilians, and for our men here who become ill and they all tell me that we would do without them even away back here. Up at the front they must be a thousand times more needed.

When Need Is Greatest.
I read in The Freeman that Ulster county doubled on the K. of C. I do not know what it will be asked to do for the Red Cross, but whatever it is, I hope it will double again, for the Red Cross is the thing that gets to the boys when their need is the greatest. The Paris Herald says something about soldiers from the front going over to help the campaign. I hope you get some of them in Ulster county, for they sure can tell you things, and no bluff or brag about it, either.

Hand the Check Over.
My allotment checks that you get are pretty small because there is $10 a month taken out yet to pay for the Liberty Bond I bought at Camp A, but if my April check has come before the Red Cross drive ends just hand it over to the committee, as I wrote you to do with the Y. M. C. A. and K. of C. for I want to kick in on this. I can get along on the $11 a month that is coming after my insurance and allotment are paid. I know The Freeman will do its darnedest, but I hope it will let out an extra link, turn on a few extra cylinders, this time and wake the folks up and make a better record for Ulster county than ever before.

Watching For News.
Is John D. Schoonmaker running the campaign this time? If he is I know it will be a winner anyway for he just goes out and does things without any brass band or hurrah. But I wish you folks could know how we are all watching out for the news from home, to see whether the interest keeps up or you are getting tired.

Don't Let the Folks Forget.
Don't let the folks forget that the more men we have over here and the more men we have at the front the bigger the casualty lists will get and the more need there will be for the Red Cross.

Glad to hear everybody at home, including Buster, is well.
FRED.

SOLDIER'S PAY GOES TO RED CROSS

From War Department Check Poncehockie Family Returns to Uncle Sam in Contributions for its Members.

The Ninth ward, of which N. D. J. Murphy is chairman, was awarded one of the honor banners Wednesday evening at the meeting of the Red Cross workers at the Y. M. C. A.

Among the noteworthy contributions to the Second war fund drive was that of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred T. Ashby, of 18 Poncehockie street. They have a two-star service flag flying at their house, one star for a boy now serving the colors and the other star in memory of their other son who died in the service. When the solicitors called at the house Mrs. Ashby contributed the sum of $15, of which amount $10 was from her husband and herself and the remainder for her son, Private Edwin Ashby. The contribution was paid with a check from the war department. The Ashbys have not only given their only sons to Uncle Sam but they are helping in every way to win the war by doing what they can at home. If every family in Kingston followed their patriotic example this second Red Cross drive would close with Ulster county's quota of $75,000 tripled.

Among other contributions from the Fifth ward was one for $20 from the Ladies' Aid Society of Temple Emanuel.

The following important announcement to grocers has been made by the County Food Administrator:

To the retail grocers of the city and county. Certificates, which the purchaser must sign to secure sugar for all canning purposes, have arrived at the office of the food administrator, W. C. Shaper, 44 Main street, Kingston, N. Y., who will supply all the grocers if they will call at his office. The federal food board are very anxious that all persons do a goodly amount of canning at this particular time.

W. C. SHAPER.
Food Administrator for Ulster Co.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.

Draft Registry of 13th Ward is at the Armory.

All those registering with the local board in response to the call of the war department, below the West Shore, includes the Thirteenth ward. The hours are from 7 a. m. to 9 p. m.

Van Wageningen Store Attractive.

Red Cross uniforms were in evidence on every hand at Van Wageningen's and in every department, Thursday, and aided greatly in increasing the sales. Red Cross markers, American and Red Cross flags adorned the store, and in the very front, was displayed an exceptionally handsome Italian flag, made by Mr. Richards in charge of the draperies and art fabrics department.

Attractive Window Display.

Charles A. Warren, the Fair street sporting goods dealer, had a fine window display Friday, showing a circus tent, animals and an airplane flying over the grounds. It attracted much attention.

New Motor for Trucking.

Van Etten & Hogan of Wall street have purchased a White motor truck for use in their trucking business. The firm are also building a garage.

DAY LINE SEASON OPENED TODAY

Forty-Eight Employees in This Line Are in Service of Our Country for Whom the Company Unfurled Service Flags on Nine Piers—Three Stars for Kingston Boys.

Forty-eight of the employees of the Hudson River Day Line are in the service of our country and this morning at 8 o'clock service flags were unfurled from the nine piers of the company. Three of Kingston's boys in the service of the company are now serving with the colors: John Parslow, an officer on the Mary Powell; Andrew Worf, cashier in the dining room of the Albany; and Alex Rodie, a collector on the Albany.

The Day Line season opened this morning when the Albany left New York city at 8:40 o'clock on her first trip up the river. Appropriate exercises were conducted by the Day Line at the company's piers not only in New York, but at Newburgh, Poughkeepsie, Kingston Point, Catskill, Hudson and Albany.

President E. E. Olcott made a brief speech at the Desbrosses street pier in New York at 8 o'clock this morning and then sent the Albany, the first boat of the 1918 season, on its up-river journey.

In beginning service for the season, the Day Line resumes the day-light trips between New York and Albany which have given pleasure to so many thousands in other years. The steamers in service this season will be the Washington Irving, Hendrick Hudson, Robert Fulton and the Albany.

The Mary Powell, which has been berthed for the winter at the Sunflower dock was towed to the Mary Powell dock in the Rondout creek Thursday by the tug Rob and coaled up. After coaling she was towed back to the Sunflower dock where she will lay awaiting orders.

CLINTONDALE.

Clinton, May 23.—Field Day sports were held on the school grounds Friday afternoon, May 17, in which the schools of the town (Platekill) participated. The event was opened with a parade starting at the graded school and extending through Central avenue and up State street. This was an innovation for the village and a surprise to the observers, because of the unexpected features of the parade, which consisted of two motor floats from the local school, representing "The Cross that Saves" and "Betsy Ross," and one motor float from Ardona. The three were all prettily decorated with the national colors as were also a number of bicycles ridden by local school boys, who followed the floats. After that came the pupils of schools of the town, accompanied by their instructors. It was said there were over 200 in the line. Applause greeted the arrival of Miss Patten, physical director of the town, who arrived while the parade was returning down Central avenue. The whole affair was finely arranged, the floats and trimmed bicycles adding much to its attractiveness. Having reached the grounds the local school gave two pretty drills, consisting of a flag drill by sixteen boys, and patriotic drill by twelve girls. The Ardona school pupils gave some very pretty kindergarten games after which the usual field day sports were in order. The pupils of the town were divided into two groups, the reds and blues. The reds having won the greater number of points were accorded the winners of the day's sports. The May pole dance, by our local school girls, was the most attractive feature presented on the grounds. The girls who participated were gowned in white, with high topped caps upon their heads and with long, broad, divided streamers, some red, some white, some blue, extending from their shoulders. The whole effect was extremely pretty and the march that preceded the winding was perfectly executed. Taken as a whole it was a very successful affair and something new in the history of the school. People are speaking very highly of the deep interest our local teachers are taking in the every-day instruction of their pupils and also of their interest in the events that bring the school and its work before the minds of the people. Quite a good sized crowd witnessed the sports, observers having come with cars, horses and carriages and on foot to spend the afternoon.

The Junior League of the M. E. Church will have a special program in the church auditorium on Sunday afternoon, May 26.

Mr. Creque, the proprietor of our garage, is doing a thriving business, which speaks well of his thorough repair work.

Erastus Gerald and family of Highland visited relatives here recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Upright of Highland visited Mrs. Upright's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Livingston, Friday afternoon.

Our local Grange visited the Milton Grange and presented a May pole dance Monday night.

The Epworth League is planning on sending a large delegation to the Highland Union at Esopus, Friday evening, May 24.

ESOPUS.

Esopus, May 23.—The Adelpia Club has purchased and presented to the Methodist Church a handsome silk American flag. It has been placed at the left of the pulpit where it will remain as an emblem of the patriotism of the Adelpia Club. The club has also given a service flag to the church which already has five stars attached, and probably very soon there will be occasion to add others. The present ones are in honor of Louis C. Goodrich, Irving Bilyou, Graham Bilyou, William Hummel and Howard Wright. The thanks of the congregation are due the president of the club, Miss Marian Mott, and her associates for this patriotic gift.

Mrs. Edward Ashton entertained Mrs. O. E. McLain Wednesday. Do not fail to attend the Epworth League group meeting on Friday evening of this week, May 24th.

Miss Marian Mott has been very busy this week soliciting subscriptions for the Red Cross drive. She has quite a large area to canvass extending from the residence of George Van Tassel on the north to that of Harry Payne Bingham's on the south. Miss Mott will have had quite an experience in the line of Home Defense work when this campaign is over, as this is the second time she has solicited for the Red Cross and she also was very successful in the Liberty Loan Bond drive. In conversing with the young lady yesterday morning the writer learned that she was well pleased with the generous response that most of the people were giving to this last appeal. In fact they seemed more willing to contribute than during the first drive.

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. Charles Martin is not as well as during the past few weeks. She bears her long illness with great patience and fortitude. Her two sisters, Mrs. Jack Fenwick and Mrs. George Movel are constant in their attendance upon her and try in every possible way to assist in her recovery.

On account of the group meeting on Friday evening the regular Junior League meeting will be omitted Friday afternoon of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Conroy have moved to Esopus from New York city and will occupy part of the house on the corner of West and Main streets, owned by Daniel Freer.

ESOPUS.

Esopus, May 23.—The Adelphia Club has purchased and presented to the Methodist Church a handsome silk American flag. It has been placed at the left of the pulpit where it will remain as an emblem of the patriotism of the Adelphia Club. The club has also given a service flag to the church which already has five stars attached, and probably very soon there will be occasion to add others.

The present ones are in honor of Louis C. Goodrich, Irving Blyou, Graham Blyou, William Hummel and Howard Wright. The thanks of the congregation are due the president of the club, Miss Marian Mott, and her associates for this patriotic gift.

Mrs. Edward Ashton entertained Mrs. O. E. McLean Wednesday.

Do not fail to attend the Epworth League group meeting on Friday evening of this week, May 24th.

Miss Marian Mott has been very busy this week soliciting subscriptions for the Red Cross drive. She has quite a large area to canvass extending from the residence of George Van Tassel on the north to that of Harry Payne Bingham's on the south. Miss Mott will have had quite an experience in the line of Home Defense work when this campaign is over, as this is the second time she has solicited for the Red Cross and she also was very successful in the Liberty Loan Bond drive. In conversing with the young lady yesterday morning the writer learned that she was well pleased with the generous response that most of the people were giving to this last appeal. In fact they seemed more willing to contribute than during the first drive.

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. Charles Martin is not as well as during the past few weeks. She bears her long illness with great patience and fortitude. Her two sisters, Mrs. Jack Fenwick and Mrs. George Mowel are constant in their attendance upon her and try in every possible way to assist in her recovery. On account of the group meeting on Friday evening the regular Junior League meeting will be omitted Friday afternoon of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Conroy have moved to Esopus from New York city and will occupy part of the house on the corner of West and Main streets, owned by Daniel Freer.

Mrs. Schepmoes had gone out to see her at her home and to her that one of her class members wanted to see her at her home and to her amazement when she arrived she found ten ladies of her class awaiting her return instead of one lady. Miss Edna Schepmoes rendered various selections on the piano and the evening was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. The affair was given on the eve of Mrs. Schepmoes birthday, and during the evening the Rev. George Cranston called to offer his best wishes to her, for many happy returns of the day. Mrs. Schepmoes was presented with a beautiful potted plant and a purse of money by the members of her class. Delicious refreshments were served and all agreed they had been royally entertained. ## Why St. Mark's is Unique.

There is no structure in the world just like St. Mark's in Venice, notes the Kansas City Journal. Its bulb-shaped dome and minaret-like bellfries remind a visitor of the Orient. It seems more like a Mohammedan than a Christian temple. In the facade are scores of variously colored marble columns, each one a monolith and all possessing an eventful history. Some are from Ephesus, others from Smyrna, others from Constantinople and more than one from Jerusalem.

St. Mark's is the treasure house of Venice, a place of pride as well as prayer. The work of beautifying this old church was carried on for five centuries, and each generation tried to outdo all that had preceded it. The walls and roof are so profusely covered with mosaics and precious marbles that it is easy to understand why St. Mark's has been called the "Church of God."

CRAZY JIM'S RIDE

By L. A. WALWORTH.

(Copyright by Frank A. Munsey Company.)

The Chicago & Northwestern railway built an extension in South Dakota in 1891 which was known as "Deadwood Hill."

The length of the extension is about ten miles, with an average grade of approximately one hundred and forty-five feet to the mile.

The Deadwood yard was situated on an extreme incline; and as cars would not remain standing unless the handbrakes were securely set, a derail switch was placed at the lower end of the yard.

The railroad men immediately called the extension "Deadwood Hill." It is now more commonly known as "The Hill." Soon after it was first operated the railroaders realized the chances of accident on the line, and many refused to work on the perilous grade. As a result, it was necessary to select a number of reliable men of long experience to run its trains.

Among those chosen, and he consented without objection, was Jim. Sunny Jim, it should have been, for he was a most genial and optimistic character.

Jim usually reported and waited until he was called. When he appeared he complained that he did not feel quite so well as usual, but he responded promptly to his call.

He performed the routine duties preceding a trip, then ran to the end of the yard, and as there were no cars to be taken out, he coupled to a way-car, obtained his running orders, and started.

His engine ran to the derrick in the lower yard, stopped, set it clear, passed it, set it once more to the safety position, and proceeded to the derrick beyond the tunnel. Here the operation was repeated, and the short train moved on its way.

With almost five miles of tortuous track before them, they started down the steep grade.

A great change passed over Jim as they drifted down the mountain side,

It was remarkable because it was so sudden and unexpected. Perhaps it was the illness of which he had complained or the strain of many trips over the same line; in any event, in a few minutes Jim's smiling placidity was transformed into a most irritable nervousness. He snapped tartly at his fireman.

At this point of the descent the engineer was obliged to proceed with utmost caution. Jim evidently had kicked caution out of the cab and was dallying with death.

The fireman rushed to Jim's side and seized him by the sleeve.

"What's the matter with you, Jim?" he bellowed. "Are you crazy?"

Jim turned to him with a vicious leer.

"Matter?" The words rasped through his drawn, white lips. "Why, we're on our way to the devil, and you're going along."

He laughed harshly, and the fireman recoiled from him. Then in a flash came swift understanding. Jim's mind had overthrown.

The fireman approached cautiously. "Why, surely, Jim, I'm going along." His voice was calm.

Quickly he leaped forward and, grasping Jim by the shoulder, reached for the throttle. Jim thrust aside his detaining hand and, with a vigorous push, sent him staggering toward the tender.

Before he could regain his feet, the engineer picked up a wrench and waved it with a menacing gesture.

"I'll brain you," he grated, "if you try to interfere. I'm running this engine!"

The fireman looked at him helplessly. Jim was running to the devil and death, indeed.

For a moment he considered the possibility of overpowering Jim, but a violent maniac with a wrench is a dangerous foe.

He glanced out of the gangway and watched the right-of-way rush by. The speed was becoming more perilous with every plunge of the drivers.

Jim sat leaning out of the window. The fireman could scarcely stand, so violent was the lurching of the engine.

He crept forward, but Jim turned and discovered him.

"Back," he snarled at the fireman. "Remember, I'll brain you if you don't stay where you belong."

The fireman stepped to the tender, cast an apprehensive glance behind him, and, observing that Jim was once more intent on his mad purpose, he clambered over the coal and climbed down the steel ladder behind the tender.

Gaspung, he burst into the way-car. On the floor, their faces frozen with terror, was the train crew. At sight of the fireman, their mouths gaped stupidly.

In a few words he explained what had occurred in the cab, and, after some hesitation, they joined him when he urged them to help him to overpower the insane engineer.

One by one they made their way in silence to the cab, and then rushed at Jim. He turned with an oath and swung the wrench, but a hand caught it and held it aloft while the others mastered him after a short struggle.

The speed of the train was reduced, and, with Jim in the way-car and the fireman at the throttle, the train was halted a few yards before the derail which would have hurled them down the mountainside.

POULTRY

BREEDING TURKEYS ON FARM

Surprisingly Small Number of Fowls on Farms—More Could and Ought to Be Raised.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Raise more turkeys on the farm. It can be done with little additional outlay, and many more turkeys could and should be raised.

The small number of turkeys per farm in the United States is surprising. According to the census of 1910, which is the latest census that has been taken, only 13.7 per cent of the total number of farms reported any turkeys at all and on these farms reporting turkeys, an average of but ling from 75 to 150 turkeys each year at a good profit.

Good prices were paid to the turkey raiser during the past marketing season. On December 15, 1917, the average price per pound live weight paid to the farmer was 30.5 cents in New York state, 23.7 cents in Illinois, 25 cents in Georgia, 19.3 cents in Texas, and 27.1 cents in California. The average price throughout the United States was 23 cents.

BEST POULTRY HOUSE FLOOR

Each Has Its Advantages and Disadvantages and All Should Be Carefully Considered.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

In making the floor of the poultry house several things must be taken into consideration. Where the soil on which the house is constructed is light and well drained, earth floors are satisfactory and economical. Where the soil is heavy and drainage is not good, as is usually the case when it contains much clay, floors made of wood or cement are generally preferred. Each kind of floor has its advantages and disadvantages, and it is only after the consideration of all types should a poultry keeper make his selection.

A floor of earth needs to be renewed at least once a year. If the droppings that fall upon the floor are carefully removed at frequent, regular intervals, much of the earth is removed with them. If the regular cleaning of the floor is superficial, the earth of the floor to a depth of several inches becomes so mixed with droppings that its condition is very insatisfactory.

When the poultry keeper has a garden, the manure obtained by removing the earth floor of the poultry house will compensate for the labor of renewing the floor, and the new earth required can be taken from a convenient spot on his own land. When the poultry keeper must pay some one else to take away the old earth and bring in new, the cost will in a few years exceed the cost of a cement floor.

The principal fault of a cement floor is that it is likely to be cold and damp. These conditions may be corrected by covering the floor to a depth of an inch or two with dry earth or sand, using over this scratching litter of slightly over four breeding turkeys was found per farm. There are some farms which by the nature of the crops grown on them or because of unfavorable surroundings are not adapted to turkey raising, but most farms are adapted to turkey raising and could easily handle a breeding flock of from 10 to 15 hen turkeys and a tom, raisstraw or shavings. Floors so treated require as much routine work to keep them in good order as earth floors, but the supply of clean earth required is much less and the work of annual renovation is eliminated.

Floors of wood are not now much used in poultry houses except when the space under the floor is high enough to be occupied by poultry. A wooden floor close to the ground soon rots, while any space under a floor not high enough to be used for poultry makes a harbor for rats and other vermin.

The wooden floor of a poultry house should have a light coating of dry earth, sand, chaff or similar material, to prevent the droppings of the birds from sticking to and saturating the boards.

Save Every Egg.

Every egg which is the least bit doubtful must be saved for market while it is good, and not spoiled by incubation.

Must Have Materials.

A duck that lays an egg must have materials from which to make large quantities of protein, but does not require much fattening food.

How Africa is Divided.

The French control about one-third of North Africa—a third, reeking with incense and penetrating, sweet odors, a third lighted by lemon yellow slippers and the spangled gowns of dancing girls.

It is not enough for the French to have Morocco, Algeria and Tunis colored pink on the maps; it is their land, and control it they will.

Even the wind-swept Sahara is not what it used to be. No longer is it a tossing golden ocean by day and a moonlit lavender sea beneath the cold stars. No longer do fiercely mounted, white-robed bandits plunder the stately caravans on the silent sands, for the French camel policemen have made the trade routes practically safe.

Even in the heart of the Sahara, where by rights of romance there should be a wind-burnt waste, are oases like this large enough to support villages, with waving palm trees and with brooks running through the main street.—World Outlook.

A COMPLETE JOB REQUIRED.

In a recent appropriate message to the French people the President spoke of "this terrible and last conflict between liberty and brutal ferocity." Will it indeed be the last? If so, this great war must accomplish more than the suppression of a predatory and ruthless Germany; it must check even the will among nations to break the Ten Commandments and establish everywhere the love of justice as well as secure the freedom of mankind. Of course a thorough job in the matter of reckoning with the German aggressor is the immediate object in view and this, at least, is possible with the United States and the Allies unalterably determined to turn down any proposition of a mere patched-up peace. During the next half century Germany may be made to dread embarking upon a war for conquest as a child dreads fire, but even this much can be accomplished only through the complete and every helping defeat of that country.

That the President has such a defeat in mind is evident from his speech at the opening of the Red Cross drive in New York, in which he declared that Germany would not be allowed to carry out her purpose of conquest and exploitation in the east. "So far as I am concerned," he said, "I intend to stand by Russia as well as France." The serious nature of such an undertaking will at once be recognized by the reflective mind. A decisive defeat for Germany on the west front would relieve France of the Teuton menace and cause Germany to agree to terms that would at least temporarily secure a peace protecting the interests of the United States, England, France and Italy. But, while consenting to a peace of this sort, the Germans would not on holding their eastern conquests and carrying out their great "Mittel-Europa" scheme of vastly extended empire. In order to force them to give up this plan and remain within their original boundaries, it would probably be necessary to overrun Germany itself perhaps even liberally to drive the Germans out of Russian territory, thus compelling them to surrender, then ambitions of foreign conquest at the very point of the conquering Allied bayonet. Such a situation on the part of dominant Germany will be hard. Even now there is a scramble in German court circles "for the new thrones in the east for German princes," there being as yet only six such thrones in sight while no less than twenty-two princes of the blood are industriously pushing their claims for the coveted jobs.

To stand by France, Belgium, and the other allies of western Europe is a relatively simple matter, while to stand also by Serbia, Rumania and all the broken parts of the former Russian empire seems likely to involve a war twice as long. Yet the Russian desire is not only just in itself but points out the only road to lasting safety. Only by wresting from militant Germany all its new conquests and forcing it back, completely disarmed, within the original German boundaries, can the free peoples of the world at large be made secure.

ON BATHING.

In a letter to a friend, Stefanson, the Arctic explorer, declares that from personal experience and observation he is convinced that bathing is merely a luxurious process that has no relation whatever to health. He is even said to object to bathing on sanitary grounds, but his reasons for so unexpected a view are not given. Presumably he made this remarkable discovery during his long association with Eskimos who as a rule must go unwashed because bathing in snow or ice is out of the question. Their bodily uncleanness is their misfortune, not their fault. But solicitous nature, which provides some way to keep them in health, nevertheless, can hardly be equally relied on in neglectful persons in warmer climates. The Eskimo has an excuse, not possessed by the African king, who boasted to Livingstone that he had not taken a bath in thirty years. With the mercury at 60 below, Stefanson could endure his Eskimo arms' length, but we may be sure that Livingstone found it advisable to converse with that African king from afar.

A daily bath is indeed a luxury in the sense that it is delightful, but health or even cleanliness may not demand one so often. Needs vary according to the person in this as in others matters. The president of Bryn Mawr (Pa.) College once told her girls that a bath once a month was necessary for health, one a week for comfort and one a day for self-respect. Physicians would differ as to the question of frequency, and the average intelligent man can learn from experience what is best for him. Every one to his taste—provided he keeps clean.

TOGETHER

How close we draw in this our time of trial.
All patient comrades in a dedicated land!
Now rich and poor are one in self denial:
The brave North grips the brave South by the hand.

So small it is, the world that bleeds and suffers!
Sea-sundered folk united in one dream.
Sending their Best on the crusade that offers.
Their rainbow banners following the Gleam!

How old the call of justice and of Honor
To generous hearts, good men and women true!
But with the badge of Righteousness upon her,
All Freedom armed to conquer War—how new!

How great the victory of Peace we strive for
In brotherhood, the welding of the free!
At last TOGETHER one ideal we live for,
America, England, France, the glorious Three!
—Abbie Farwell Brown of The Vigilantes

Reasonable Conclusion.

"Although the footpad who robbed me of my watch and money last night appeared to me to be unusually tall, he offered in extenuation of the outrage the excuse that he was exceedingly short," commented Professor Fate. "The deduction I draw from the incident is that, in addition to being dishonest, he was also untruthful."—Kansas City Star.

P. T. A. PLANNING FOR BIG MEETING

State Officers of Parent-Teachers' Association Who Attended the Executive Session Thursday——Gloversville October Meeting Discussed.

The executive session of the state officers of the P. T. A. closed Thursday at 4 p. m. Considerable time was given to plans for the annual state convention to be held in Gloversville in October. Owing to illness and various war conditions only nine of the thirty officers were present. They were: President Mrs. W. A. Saltford of Poughkeepsie, 2nd Vice-President Mrs. E. D. Jennison of Albany, Recording Secretary Mrs. Isaac Moses of Gloversville, Historian Mrs. E. A. Tuttle of New York city, who is 82 years old, was one of the founders of the P. T. A. and has been in the work for over 25 years; Chairman of Education Mrs. P. E. Herrick, of Kenwood; Chairman on Moral Training Mrs. Edward Harding, of Yonkers; Chairman of Membership Mrs. S. D. Brown, of Gloversville; Chairman on Printing Mrs. S. H. Hall, of Poughkeepsie; Mrs. J. Ward, president of the Federated Council P. T. A. of Gloversville and guest of the state officers. These ladies with some of the Kingston P. T. A. officers attended the high school assembly at 8:45 a. m. Mrs. Saltford, state president, gave an enjoyable address to the students. The high school domestic science class served luncheon at noon. Superintendent and Mrs. Michael, Principal Lewis, and a number of the Kingston P. T. A. presidents partaking with them.

GIRL SCOUTS PATRIOTIC STUNT.

Raising Funds to Adopt a French War Orphan.

The Girl Scouts of Kingston have planned to do their bit for the world war in that they have decided to adopt a French war orphan, and now, with their girlish enthusiasm high, they intend, if possible, to raise the full amount of money needed for this undertaking at once. It costs $36 to adopt a war orphan for a year, so today the Girl Scouts are out doing a double patriotic stunt. They are selling rosettes of Italian colors, in honor of Italy Day, and getting a start in their fund. Captain Hart and Lieutenant Soles have helped the girls make the rosettes, and they have been selling rapidly, so that a nice sum should be realized to at once begin the care of the little war child. When you buy a rosette from a Girl Scout today, forget the change.

Barnum & Bailey Buys "New Way."

Comfort and Economy

A Square Pot Furnace means the comfort of evenly heated, well ventilated rooms—the economy of less coal consumption and less labor. The square fire pot increases the radiating surface 15%. The simplicity of construction and special devices make Square Pot Furnaces easy to operate.

In no other furnace will you find the square fire pot, and with no other furnace can you benefit from the many advantages this superior principle of construction affords.

Ask your dealer about Square Pot Furnaces and Square Pot Steam and Hot Water Boilers. He will give you expert advice and much interesting information.

KINGSTON AT CHESS WINS FIRST PRIZE

U. S. Champion Met in Drawn Game
By Sam Bernstein Who Achieved
Honors in Position and Material,
Short of Being Decisive.

Sam Bernstein of Kingston won first prize in the chess tournament held at Marshall's Divan in New York city last Wednesday night. Mr. Marshall, who is chess champion of the United States, on this occasion met nineteen amateur players simultaneously, three prizes being offered for the most skillfully played games. Mr. Marshall won sixteen games and drew three. Mr. Bernstein's game was declared drawn, but he really had the better of the champion both in position and material, but his advantage fell just short of being decisive. Mr. Bernstein denies the rumor that he has issued a challenge to Marshall for the championship, considering that a long drawn out match is inappropriate at a time when war needs claim all available activities.

And the sea-larks loosing free,
And the Spanish sailors with bearded lips,
And the beauty and mystery of the ships,
And the magic of the sea. —Kipling.

INEXPENSIVE GOOD THINGS.

A little leftover oatmeal if molded may be cut in slices and fried. If a piece of two of bacon or a little meat or sausage is added to it before putting it in the mold it will make a more nourishing dish and one which may take the place of meat.

Chicken en Casserole.—Prepare a small fowl as for stuffing. Remove legs and wings. Bone the legs and stuff them with the following: Chop the cooked chicken liver, a half cupful of ham and six blanched chestnuts. Mix with a cupful of bread crumbs a half cupful or more of milk, two egg yolks. Season to taste with nutmeg, thyme, marjoram, salt, parsley and onion juice. Roll the fowl after stuffing in flour and brown in the pan; place in a casserole, add two carrots, two onions and a half cupful of uncooked rice with a pint of water. Simmer one or two hours.

Indian Delight.—Cook a half pound of spaghetti in boiling salted water. Chop one small onion, one clove of garlic, a green pepper fine and fry in half a cupful of olive oil until the onions are golden, then add a cupful of condensed tomato, one and a half teaspoonfuls of salt, cayenne and paprika to taste, a half teaspoonful of Worcestershire sauce. When thoroughly heated stir in a half cupful of cheese. When melted add the spaghetti and a half a can of corn and lastly a half pound of hamburger steak, softened with cold water to prevent its cooking in lumps. Stir over the fire for five minutes and turn into a baking dish. Sprinkle with grated cheese and bake 20 minutes.

California Pudding.—Take a cupful each of raw potato ground, a carrot and apple, also ground, a cupful of brown sugar, a cupful of raisins, a cupful and a quarter of flour, a teaspoonful of cinnamon, a half teaspoonful of cloves and a teaspoonful of soda stirred into the potato. Cream a half cupful of shortening with the sugar, dredge the raisins with a little flour. Mix and steam three hours. Serve hot with hard or liquid sauce.

BIG ICE HOUSE AT COXSACKIE BURNED

The Dover Platt ice house, situated just above Coxsackie, owned by the Knickerbocker Ice Company, capacity 40,000 tons, was totally destroyed by fire at 3 o'clock this morning. The cause of the fire is unknown. The house was filled to its capacity last winter and about one-half of the ice had been removed. Two loading gangs have been at work at this house for several weeks and all of the loading equipment of these two gangs was lost.

ENTERTAIN GUESTS.

Clinton Chapter, O. E. S., Will Eclipse Past Meetings.

On Saturday evening, June 1st, the most worthy grand matron, Mrs. May Youngs Smith, and her staff of grand officers will officially visit the Eleventh district at Clinton Chapter, No. 445, Order of Eastern Star. This meeting will no doubt eclipse any meeting in the history of the chapter, as grand lodge officers from all over the state will be present.

One of the features of the entertainment of the grand officers while in Kingston will be a banquet given to them at the Stuyvesant, preceding the evening session of the chapter. Covers will be laid for about one hundred in the famous Stuyvesant form.

"I probably deserve it, papa. I know I have been neglecting the children lately."
"It isn't that; but aren't you neglecting your game of bridge?"

"How did you happen to go in for aviation?"
"I was driven to it. Three years ago an heiress turned me down, and I've been up in the air ever since."

Value of Entertainment of Soldiers Proved When Band Is Sent From U. S.

A letter recently received in this country from Col. William Hayward, former New York public service commissioner, illustrating the value of entertainment for soldiers, describes the sensation produced in France by a negro band from the United States, whose membership also included musicians from Cuba and Porto Rico. The cost of organizing the band and sending it to France was $10,000, which was paid by Daniel G. Reid.

When subscriptions were being raised Mr. Reid was the first man asked to contribute. He asked the total amount required, and when told $10,000, he is said to have remarked: "I'll pay the whole check."

The band is headed by Lieutenant Europe, who before the war days conducted the orchestra of the Forty-fourth street theater roof. Colonel Hayward in his letter also said:

"A lot of things are as fun, and one year ago I would have thought them unendurable. But what heaven we will be when it is all over! I shall not know how to act in polite society or what to do with the ordinary paraphernalia of civilization, like toilet, baths, club chairs. Umbrellas are obsolete. Do they still have them anywhere? Rain means nothing but a little bit—not much—deeper mud. Still nobody has any kick to squeal about, and all hands are so pleased to think they weren't left at home out of this beautiful party that optimism reigns supreme. Of course we know absolutely nothing about the war or how it's going except in our own little neck of the woods, and really don't care."

"Our band is the most wonderful thing over here. I don't believe any money ever bought as much pleasure and happiness for human beings as did Daniel G. Reid's in this instance."

The Main Point.

George—The idea of accepting such a buffoon as a man for a husband! Why, his name doesn't look well on a visiting card.

Evelyn—No, but it looks rather inviting on a check.

PEDDLERS MUST GET LICENSE OR JUGGED

Police Are Not by Rounding Them Up and They'll Have Costs to Pay if They Try to Dodge Paying License Fee.

Policeman P. J. White rounded up Louis Lass of 24 Chambers street, Thursday on a charge of peddling junk without license, and escorted him to the city hall where he furnished bail for his appearance in police court today when he was fined $3 by Judge Schirck. In addition he also took out a peddling license costing $5.

The police believe there are several more junk peddlers who have not secured a license and they will be arrested unless they pay a visit to police headquarters and secure that necessary slip of paper.

Henry Langley of Newkirk avenue, was so disorderly that the neighbors sent in a complaint to police headquarters Thursday and Officers Connelly and Kuehn hurried to the scene and placed Langley under arrest. He pleaded not guilty and demanded a trial set down for today. This morning he pleaded guilty when arraigned in police court. Judge Schirck jailed him for fifteen days. Langley has been in trouble before.

HOW BRITISH GOV. CLEAR LAND OF VERMIN.

—British government authorities have decided to organize a campaign for the destruction of rats, mice, sparrows and other vermin throughout the country.

The ministry of food has tentatively established a destructive pests branch, with Lieut. Alfred E. Moore as director.

The proposals already under consideration include: The organization of all the rat catchers throughout the country, the training of several hundred disabled soldiers as rat catchers, the establishment of rat and sparrow clubs, bird sanctuaries to be formed for the preservation of owls and vermin-destraining birds, capitation grant for the destruction of rats and sparrows to be trapped and used as food.

Another proposal is that the director of the destructive pests branch should take immediate steps to eliminate disease-carrying and useless cats. This involves the registration of all cats and the compulsory wearing of a collar inscribed with the owner's name and registration number.

SQUIRRELS APPEAL FOR HELP

Why Protected Inhabitants of White House Grounds Feel Called On to Protest Pet's Destruction.

Speaking of families, the squirrels in the White House grounds at Washington are up against it. Before the United States got into the war these grounds were largely open to the public, and the concrete walk along the front driveway was used daily by thousands of government employees going to and from work and by tourists. Hundreds of persons made it a practice the now and then to fill their pockets with peanuts to feed to the squirrels, and the little bushy-tailed creatures became so tame that they would sit along the concrete walk as pedestrians passed and beg.

When war was declared, however, the grounds were closed to the public. Police guards by day and soldiers by night keep all trespassers away. The squirrels have become lean and wild—those who have remained in the grounds—and the peanut vendors who for years have had their pushcarts near the east gate report a large falling off in sales.

Sales of War Stamps Growing.

A meeting of the Metropolitan War Savings Stamp Society was held last night in the Burgevin building. Rev. George Murdoch, of St. Joseph's Church, delivered a fine patriotic address which was an inspiration to all present to continue their efforts in selling stamps.

Postmaster W. C. DeWitt presided at the meeting in the absence of President Alford, who was called out of town by the death of his mother. Reports on stamp sales are encouraging and it is believed that the May sales will exceed the April sales of $11,000.

PEDDLERS MUST GET LICENSE OR JUGGED

Police Are Not by Rounding Them Up and They'll Have Costs to Pay if They Try to Dodge Paying License Fee.

Policeman P. J. White rounded up Louis Lass of 24 Chambers street, Thursday on a charge of peddling junk without license, and escorted him to the city hall where he furnished bail for his appearance in police court today when he was fined $3 by Judge Schirick. In addition he also took out a peddling license costing $5.

The police believe there are several more junk peddlers who have not secured a license and they will be arrested unless they pay a visit to police headquarters and secure that necessary slip of paper.

Henry Langley of Newkirk avenue, was so disorderly that the neighbors sent in a complaint to police headquarters Thursday and Officers Connelly and Kuehn hurried to the scene and placed Langley under arrest. He pleaded not guilty and demanded a trial set down for today. This morning he pleaded guilty when arraigned in police court. Judge Schirick jailed him for fifteen days. Langley has been in trouble before.

HOW BRITISH GOV. ERNMENT WILL CLEAR LAND OF VERMIN.

—British government authorities have decided to organize a campaign for the destruction of rats, mice, sparrows and other vermin throughout the country.

The ministry of food has tentatively established a destructive pests branch, with Lieut. Alfred E. Moore as director.

The proposals already under consideration include: The organization of all the rat catchers throughout the country, the training of several hundred disabled soldiers as rat catchers, the establishment of rat and sparrow clubs, bird sanctuaries to be formed for the preservation of owls and vermin-destroying birds, capitation grant for the destruction of rats and sparrows to be trapped and used as food.

Another proposal is that the director of the destructive pests branch should take immediate steps to eliminate disease-carrying and useless cats. This involves the registration of all cats and the compulsory wearing of a collar inscribed with the owner's name and registration number.

FATAL ACCIDENT
ON TROLLEY LINE

Several Seriously Injured in a Collision on Syracuse and Auburn Electric Road—Car Was Badly Wrecked.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Syracuse, May 24.—A man was killed, several probably fatally injured and eight seriously injured when an Auburn and Syracuse trolley car ran into two coal cars at Olmer's Crossing, near Split Rock, a suburb of this city, early this morning.

William Lewis, of Skaneateles, a passenger, was killed. The motor-man may die.

Running at high speed, and while rounding a curve, the trolley car crashed into the coal cars. Immediately the passengers were thrown into a pile of humanity. The concussion was so great that every seat in the car was torn from its fastenings.

People nearby who heard the crash rushed to the assistance of the victims of the wreck. Ambulances were hurried to the scene from Syracuse and many of the injured were brought to the hospitals in this city.

JOHN D. HELPS OUT
FOR THE WAR FUND

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

New York, May 24.—The Rockefeller Foundation today contributed $500,000 to the war fund of the American Red Cross.

Announcement of the contribution was made at a luncheon at the Chamber of Commerce by John D. Rockefeller, Jr.

He explained that the contribution is somewhat in excess of the amount which the resources of the foundation warrant during the current year, but that a gift from the founder to cover the excess made it possible.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

New York, May 24.—There was a scramble for stocks at the opening of the stock market today buying in the first few minutes being attended by a good deal of excitement with many issues making gains, ranging from 1 to 3 points. Steel Common was in urgent demand, the opening sales of that stock being 14,000 shares at 110 1/2 to 110 3/4, but after selling at 110 1/2 there was a sharp reaction to 109 3/4. Other stocks moved in almost the same manner, substantial gains at the start being materially reduced in the next few minutes. Baldwin advanced 2 1/2 to 95 1/2, with a reaction to 93 1/2, and Republic after advancing 1 1/2 to 90 reacted to 89. Industrial Alcohol advanced 3 points to 135 1/2 with a reaction to 134 1/2. Marine Preferred advanced 1 1/2 to 10 1/2, and the reacted to 10 1/4. American Summit moved up 4 1/2 points to 137 1/2. The copper stocks failed to join in the display of strength Anaconda declining from 66 1/2 to 66, and Inspiration declined 1/2 to 53.

There was trading on an enormous scale in Steel Common all through the first hour. It sold down to 109 1/2, but rallied to 109 3/4. Allis Chalmers moved up to 37, a gain of nearly 2 points and Colorado Fuel and Iron advanced to 53 1/2, a gain of over 2 points. Sloss-Sheffield advanced 2 points to 71 and Westinghouse rose 1 1/2 to 45 1/2. Marine Preferred was actively traded in yielding from 10 1/2 to 10 1/4, and then rallied to 10 3/4. Union Pacific was the strongest of the railroad list advancing 1 1/2 to 122 1/2. Many of the low priced specialties made gains of one point or more. Liberty 4 1/2 yielded to the new low of 97 1/4.

After the vigorous advances in the early afternoon the market again turned weak with reactions of about one point in the leading issues. Steel Common sold down to 109 1/2, Colorado Fuel reacted 2 points to 51 1/2. Industrial Alcohol dropped from 135 1/2 to 134 1/2, and Distillers fell from 134 1/2 to 133 1/2. Marine Preferred fell from 10 1/2 to 10 1/4. The trading was in large blocks on both sides of the market.

The stock market closed weak today; government bonds unchanged; railway and other bonds weak.

FATAL ACCIDENT
ON TROLLEY LINE

Several Seriously Injured in a Collision on Syracuse and Auburn Electric Road—Car Was Badly Wrecked.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Syracuse, May 24.—One man was killed, several probably fatally injured and eighty seriously injured when an Auburn and Syracuse trolley car ran into two coal cars at Olney's Crossing, near Split Rock, a suburb of this city, early this morning.

William Lewis, of Skaneateles, a passenger, was killed. The motor-man may die.

Rushing at high speed, and while rounding a curve, the trolley car crashed into the coal cars. Immediately the passengers were thrown into a pile of humanity. The concussion was so great that every seat in the car was torn from its fastenings. People nearby who heard the crash rushed to the assistance of the victims of the wreck. Ambulances were hurried to the scene from Syracuse and many of the injured were brought to the hospitals in this city.

JOHN D. HELPS OUT
FOR THE WAR FUND
GREATEST BATTLE
EVER FOUGHT

By Telegram to The Freeman.
New York, May 24.—The Rockefeller Foundation today contributed $3,000,000 to the war fund of the American Red Cross.

Announcement of the contribution was made at a luncheon at the Chamber of Commerce by John D. Rockefeller, Jr.

He explained that the contribution is somewhat in excess of the amount which the resources of the foundation warrant during the current year, but the gift from the foundation to cover the excess made it possible.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

By Telegram to The Freeman.

New York, May 24.—There was a scramble for stocks at the opening of the stock market today buying in the first few minutes being attended by a good deal of excitement with many issues making gains, ranging from 1 to 3 points. Steel Common was in urgent demand, the opening sales of that stock being 14,000 shares at 110 1/4 to 110 1/2, but after selling at 110 1/2 there was a sharp reaction to 109 3/4. Other stocks moved in almost the same manner, substantial gains at the start being materially reduced in the next few minutes. Baldwin advanced 2 1/2 to 95 1/4, with a reaction to 93 1/2, and Republic after advancing 1 1/2 to 90 reacted to 89. Industrial Alcohol advanced 3 points to 135 1/2, with a reaction to 134 1/2. Marine Preferred advanced 1 1/2 to 102 1/2, and then reacted to 101 1/2. American Sumatra moved up 4 1/4 points to 137 1/4. The copper stocks failed to join in the display of strength Anaconda declining from 66 1/2 to 66, and Inspiration declined 1/2 to 53.

There was trading on an enormous scale in Steel Common all through the first hour. It sold down to 109 1/4, but rallied to 109 3/4. Allis Chalmers moved up to 37, a gain of nearly 2 points and Colorado Fuel and Iron advanced to 53 1/2, a gain of over 2 points. Sloss-Sheffield advanced 2 points to 71 and Westinghouse rose 1 1/2 to 45 1/2. Marine Preferred was actively traded in yielding from 102 1/2 to 101 1/2, and then rallied to 102. Union Pacific was the strongest of the railroad list advancing 1 1/2 to 122 1/2. Many of the low priced specialties made gains of one point or more. Liberty 4 1/4's yielded to the new low of 97 1/4.

After the vigorous advances in the early afternoon the market again turned weak with recessions of about one point in the leading issues. Steel Common sold down to 109 1/4 and Colorado Fuel reacted 2 points to 51 1/2. Industrial Alcohol dropped from 137 to 135 1/2 and Distillers fell from 137 1/2 to 136 1/2. The trading was in large blocks on both sides of the market.

The stock market closed weak today; government bonds unchanged; railway and other bonds weak.

The wholesale market price of potatoes in New York city is rising rapidly and is now at $2.75 to $3.00 a barrel of 180 pounds, whereas a week ago it was at $1.75 to $2.00, these prices being the price to retailers, not including delivery. ## PICK SOX AND GIANTS

Selected as Logical Pennant Winners in Major Leagues.

Champions of 1917 Just as Strong as Ever and "Dope" Favors Them to Repeat—Boston Lacking in Experience Today.

The White Sox and Giants stand out today as logical pennant winners in the major league races.

Some of their rivals have been strengthened, while others have been weakened by player deals or the weight of war, but the 1917 champions are just as strong as ever, and the "dope" favors them to repeat.

The world's champion White Sox have not lost a player whose absence would hurt their chances. The team is intact, thoroughly seasoned, highly confident and efficient in every respect. The pitching staff, which did such effective work last season, is on edge again this year, and it appears that the Sox should set a pace that will lead their rivals to the wire.

In the National League the Giants are still supreme, although they will find stiff opposition in the West. McGraw's team has not been weakened, though Herzog and Robertson are missing. Ross Young is more than filling Robertson's shoes, while Doyle and Barnes have added strength to the club. If the Giants can hold the players now wearing uniforms they will lead the field in October.

A study of the opposition in the path of the 1917 champions reveals the Red Sox as the only club liable to give Chicago a desperate fight for the American league pennant. Boston filled the empty shoes of departed stars with players equally capable, and the team as a whole is strong as Chicago. But Boston's players lack experience together, which is a big point in favor of the White Sox.

Detroit appears to be next in line. The Tigers lack pitching strength, but there is no denying the driving power and defensive ability of the club as a whole. Cleveland and New York should fight hard for the remaining first-division berth. The Indians have been hit hard by the draft and enlistments, but Lee Fohl gets the best out of his men and he still has a strong team. The Yankees, under Miller Huggins, are on their toes. They have class enough to make a stiff fight for position. St. Louis, Washington and Philadelphia are doomed for the second division, with the Browns showing best on paper.

CHAMPION SPRINTER
NOW IN KHAKI UNIFORM

Sergeant M. T. Geis, now of Company B, One Hundred and Fifth Infantry, Camp Wadsworth, is the amateur Athletic Union 1,000-yard champion for New York state. While on a furlough recently he ran on the winning team, Senior Metropolitan Relay team, in New York city.

FRANK BAKER IDEAL PLAYER

Manager Miller Huggins Undergoes Change of Opinion as to His Third Baseman.

"Frank Baker is a much different ball player than I had figured him to be when I saw him in action at Macon," remarked Miller Huggins during a recent training session. "and the difference is entirely in Baker's favor. He is a better player than I had believed. I had pictured him as one of those hitters who take long swings at the ball and quite frequently are in the position to hit a certain kind of a ball. On the contrary, I find that he always keeps his bat close enough to do damage to all kinds of pitching, and as for timing a ball and making his swing count there is no room for criticism. He is what I call a wicked hitter and should fit in line on the sort of team play at which I had been told he was weak. I must say, too, that I like his work in the field. It is strange what ideas a person has of a player he never has seen in action. I surely got an agreeable surprise in this case."

War-Time Foods.

Every woman who is at all patriotic these days is planning, studying and inquiring about foods: how to feed the family well on wholesome food and use the substitutes for flour, meat, fat and sugar that she is expected to provide. Those of us who wish to be on good terms with ourselves must be especially careful to follow our government's requests in regard to food.

Barley Muffins.

Take one cupful of buttermilk or sour milk, one tablespoonful of slurr, one egg, two tablespoonfuls of corn oil or any other vegetable fat; a teaspoonful of soda, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder, a teaspoonful of salt, and two cupfuls of sifted barley flour. Bake in well-greased gem pans 25 minutes in a moderate oven. Barley flour makes excellent pastry without the addition of wheat flour. In using barley when baking powder is used, increase the quantity of the baking powder slightly.

Potato Yeast Bread.

Take three cupfuls of hot mashed potato, firmly packed when measured, two teaspoonfuls each of salt, fat and sugar, a half a yeast cake dissolved in a fourth of a cupful of lukewarm water, and six cupfuls of wheat flour.

Put a third of a cupful of hot water with the salt, fat and sugar in a bowl, add the potato, mix well; add the yeast and one cupful of flour; knead or stir in the flour at first, adding one cupful at a time; it will be very stiff at the last, but with good kneading it will be smooth. The second kneading, because of the moisture in the potato, will be soft; add no more flour. When it is light, knead into loaves and when again light, bake in a moderate oven one hour. This makes two loaves of moist palatable bread. And potatoes contain about 80 per cent water. If no water is used, four cupfuls of flour will be sufficient, but it will take patience to knead it, but the results will be good.

Oatmeal Bread.
Pour a cupful of scalded skim milk and one cupful of water over a cupful of oatmeal; let stand until lukewarm; add a tablespoonful of sugar, a teaspoonful of salt, a half a yeast cake, and flour to knead. This bread will rise quickly. Mold into loaves and bake in a moderate oven one hour. This makes two loaves.

PICK SOX AND GIANTS

Selected as Logical Pennant Winners in Major Leagues.

Champions of 1917 Just as Strong as Ever and "Dope" Favors Them to Repeat—Boston Lacking in Experience Today.

The White Sox and Giants stand out today as logical pennant winners in the major league races.

Some of their rivals have been strengthened, while others have been weakened by player deals or the weight of war, but the 1917 champions are just as strong as ever, and the "dope" favors them to repeat.

The world's champion White Sox have not lost a player whose absence would hurt their chances. The team is intact, thoroughly seasoned, highly confident and efficient in every respect. The pitching staff, which did such effective work last season, is on edge again this year, and it appears that the Sox should set a pace that will lead their rivals to the wire.

In the National league the Giants are still supreme, although they will find stiff opposition in the West. McGraw's team has not been weakened, though Herzog and Robertson are missing. Ross Young is more than filling Robertson's shoes, while Doyle and Barnes have added strength to the club. If the Giants can hold the players now wearing uniforms they will lead the field in October.

A study of the opposition in the path of the 1917 champions reveals the Red Sox as the only club liable to give Chicago a desperate fight for the American league pennant. Boston filled the empty shoes of departed stars with players equally capable, and the team as a whole is strong as Chicago. But Boston's players lack experience together, which is a big point in favor of the White Sox.

Detroit appears to be next in line. The Tigers lack pitching strength, but there is no denying the driving power and defensive ability of the club as a whole. Cleveland and New York should fight hard for the remaining first-division berth. The Indians have been hit hard by the draft and enlistments, but Lee Fohl gets the best out of his men and he still has a strong team. The Yankees, under Miller Huggins, are on their toes. They have class enough to make a stiff fight for position. St. Louis, Washington and Philadelphia are doomed for the second division, with the Browns showing best on paper.

CHAMPION SPRINTER
NOW IN KHAKI UNIFORM

Sergeant M. T. Geis, now of Company B, One Hundred and Fifth Infantry, Camp Wadsworth, is the amateur Athletic Union 1,000-yard champion for New York state. While on a furlough recently he ran on the winning team, Senior Metropolitan Relay team, in New York city.

FRANK BAKER IDEAL PLAYER

Manager Miller Huggins Undergoes Change of Opinion as to His Third Baseman.

"Frank Baker is a much different ball player than I had figured him to be when I saw him in action at Macon," remarked Miller Huggins during a recent fanning bee, "and the difference is entirely in Baker's favor. He is a better player than I had believed. I had pictured him as one of those hitters who take long swings at the ball and quite frequently are in the position to hit a certain kind of a ball. On the contrary, I find that he always keeps his bat close enough to do damage to all kinds of pitching, and as for timing a ball and making his swing count there is no room for criticism. He is what I call a wicked hitter and should fit in fine on the sort of team play at which I had been told he was weak. I must say, too, that I like his work in the field. It is strange what ideas a person has of a player he never has seen in action. I surely got an agreeable surprise in this case."

War-Time Foods.

Every woman who is at all patriotic these days is planning, studying and inquiring about foods; how to feed the family well on wholesome food and use the substitutes for flour, meat, fat and sugar that she is expected to provide. Those of us who wish to be on good terms with ourselves must be especially careful to follow our government's requests in regard to food.

Barley Muffins.

Take one cupful of buttermilk or sour milk, one tablespoonful of syrup,

one egg, two tablespoonfuls of corn oil or any other vegetable fat, a teaspoonful of soda, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder, a teaspoonful of salt, and two cupfuls of sifted barley flour. Bake in well-greased gem pans 25 minutes in a moderate oven. Barley flour makes excellent pastry without the addition of wheat flour. In using barley when baking powder is used, increase the quantity of the baking powder slightly.

Potato Yeast Bread.

Take three cupfuls of hot mashed potato, firmly packed when measured, two teaspoonfuls each of salt, fat and sugar, a half a yeast cake dissolved in a fourth of a cupful of lukewarm water, and six cupfuls of wheat flour.

Put a third of a cupful of hot water with the salt, fat and sugar in a bowl, add the potato, mix well; add the yeast and one cupful of flour. Knead or stir in the flour at first, adding one cupful at a time; it will be very stiff at the last, but with good kneading it will be smooth. The second kneading, because of the moisture in the potato, will be soft; add no more flour. When it is light, knead into loaves and when again light, bake in a moderate oven one hour. This makes two loaves of moist palatable bread. And potatoes contain about 80 per cent water. If no water is used, four cupfuls of flour will be sufficient, but it will take patience to knead it, but the results will be good.

Oatmeal Bread.

Pour a cupful of scalded skim milk and one cupful of water over a cupful of oatmeal; let stand until lukewarm; add a tablespoonful of sugar, a teaspoonful of salt, a half a yeast cake, and flour to knead. This bread will rise quickly. Mold into loaves and bake in a moderate oven one hour. This makes two loaves.
